Electronic Filing

In all cases, all counsel who appear in a case before the Court must electronically file documents. See LR 25.1. Every counsel appearing must be admitted to the Court’s bar, or pro hac vice, and must register as a filing user. See, id.

INTRODUCTION

These instructions are provided to alert counsel and pro se litigants to particular aspects of this Court’s practice. The instructions must be read together with the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure (FRAP), this Court’s Local Rules (LRs) and Internal Operating Procedures, and applicable statutes and case law. FRAP, the LRs and IOPs, and all relevant Court forms are posted on the Court’s website www.ca2.uscourts.gov.

AGENCY - DEFINED

The term “agency” includes a federal agency, board, commission, or officer. See FRAP 15 (a)(4).

PETITION FOR REVIEW

A petition for review includes (1) a petition to enjoin, suspend, modify, or otherwise review an agency decision or (2) a notice of appeal, whichever form is indicated by the applicable statute. See FRAP 15(a)(4). A template for the petition for review is posted on the Court's website.

A party who seeks review of a federal agency's order must file a petition for review with the Clerk's Office within the time prescribed by law. A petitioner is advised to check with the agency that has issued the order to ascertain the proper filing deadline.

In immigration cases the petition for review must be filed - i.e., received in the Clerk's Office - within 30 days of the date of the final Board of Immigration Appeals ("BIA") order being challenged. See 8 U.S.C. § 1252(b)(1). This date is usually the date stamped on the BIA's decision. In counseled cases the petition for review is submitted electronically in PDF format with electronic payment of the filing fee under LR 15.1. In pro se cases the petition for review is filed on the date the Clerk's Office receives the paper copy of the document.

BANKRUPTCY APPEALS

If a party files a timely motion for rehearing under Bankruptcy Rule 8015, the time to file an appeal runs from the entry of the order determining the motion. A party must promptly notify this Court when the party has filed this motion in the district court. LR 4.2. Within 14 days of the district court disposing of the motion, the party who filed the motion must notify this Court that the district court has acted on the motion. Id.

A notice of appeal filed after the decision or order is announced but before it is entered is treated as filed on the day of entry. A notice of appeal filed after the entry of judgment but before a motion described above is decided is treated as filed when the order determining the motion is entered. FRAP 6(b)(2).

SERVICE OF PETITION FOR REVIEW

The clerk serves a copy of the petition for review on each respondent by electronic means unless a statute prescribes another method. In immigration cases the clerk effects service on the United States Attorney General by serving the petition for review on the Office of Immigration Litigation. See 8 U.S.C. §1252(b)(3).

DOCKET FEE

The petitioner must pay the $600 docket fee to the clerk when the petition for review is filed. Under LR 15.1, a petitioner may pay this fee electronically in accordance with the Court's instructions posted on the Court's website.

A petitioner who cannot afford to pay the fee must file in the Court a written motion for "in forma pauperis" ("IFP") status. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915; FRAP 24. The motion must be filed within 14 days of filing the petition for review. See LR 12.1(a).

The motion for IFP must include (1) the Court's T-1080 Motion Information Statement (see Motions, below), (2) a statement explaining the merits of the appeal, and (3) a completed FRAP Form 4 (Affidavit Accompanying Motion for Permission to Appeal in Forma Pauperis). See FRAP 24(a); LR 24.1; LR 27.1 (a)(1), (2). The motion must be served on all other parties in the case, and a proof of service form must be submitted with the motion. The motion papers must be typed or legibly printed.

A motion for IFP status must include a statement that identifies each issue to be raised on appeal and with respect to each issue, the facts and reasons that demonstrate the issue's merit. If the appellant fails to file the statement or if the Court determines the appeal is frivolous, the appeal may be dismissed. LR 24.1.

If the appeal is dismissed or denied, the docket fee will not be refunded to appellant.

CAPTION

Upon receipt of the petition for review and the agency order being challenged, the clerk will docket the petition under the title of the agency proceeding and will identify the petitioner's name, if necessary.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND NOTICE OF APPEARANCE

An Acknowledgment and Notice of Appearance must be filed by all parties within 14 days of receiving the Court's docketing notice. Timely submission of the Acknowledgment and Notice of Appearance will constitute compliance with the requirement to file a FRAP 12(b) Representation Statement. In counseled cases only an admitted attorney who has properly renewed admission or an attorney with an admission or renewal application pending may file a Notice of Appearance. A pro se party must provide all applicable information on the Acknowledgment and Notice of Appearance form.

If an attorney other than the originally designated lead counsel of record wishes to appear in a case for any reason, that attorney must file a Notice of Appearance of Substitute, Additional, or Amicus Counsel. When an attorney seeks to substitute for the lead counsel of record, the Court will recognize the new attorney as the lead only after the original lead counsel of record files with the Court a letter stating that new lead counsel is about to enter the case.

An attorney or pro se party who does not immediately notify the Court when contact information changes will not receive notices, documents and orders filed in the case. An attorney and any pro se party who is permitted to file documents electronically must notify the Court of a change to the user's mailing address, business address, telephone number, or e-mail. To update contact information, a Filing User must access PACER's Manage My Appellate Filer Account, https:// www.pacer.gov/psco/cgi- bin/cmecf/ea- login.pl. The Court's records will be updated within 1 business day of a user entering the change in PACER.

A pro se party who is not permitted to file documents electronically must notify the Court of a change in mailing address or telephone number by filing a letter with the Clerk of Court.

ADMISSION TO PRACTICE BEFORE THE SECOND CIRCUIT

Counsel of record and additional counsel participating in any aspect of the case must be admitted to this Court's bar and keep that admission current in accordance with the Court's procedures. A renewal extends admission for five years. Admission pro hac vice will be granted to a member of the bar of a district court who is acting for a party proceeding IFP or who can demonstrate exceptional circumstances justifying admission for the particular case. A written motion to proceed pro hac vice must be filed before the Notice of Appearance is filed. For forms and information on admission to practice before this Court, visit the Court's website. See LR 46.1.

REPRESENTATION OF A CORPORATION

A party that is a corporation must be represented by counsel in order to appear in this Court. See 28 U.S.C. § 1654; Berrio v. New York City Housing Authority, 564 F.3d 130, 132-133 (2d Cir. 2009) (applying even in the case of closely held corporations and corporations with a single owner).

CIVIL APPEAL PRE-ARGUMENT STATEMENT

A counseled petitioner seeking review of an agency decision must file an Agency Appeal Pre-Argument Statement, Form C-A, with the clerk within 14 days after filing the petition for review. The form can be found on the Court's website.

CIVIL APPEALS MANAGEMENT PLAN (CAMP)

The Civil Appeals Management Plan (CAMP) is the Court's program for exploring pre-argument settlement in all counseled agency cases except those that seek review of the denial of a claim for:

- asylum under the Immigration and Nationality Act,
- withholding of removal under the Immigration and Nationality Act, or,
- withholding or deferral of removal under the Convention Against Torture.

Also excluded are cases that seek review of the denial of a motion to reopen or reconsider a claim listed above. See FRAP 33.1, 34.2. Notwithstanding these exclusions, any counseled party can request to participate in CAMP.

After the petition for review is docketed and petitioner has filed the Acknowledgment and Notice of Appearance and Civil Appeal Pre-Argument Statement Form C-A, the clerk refers the case to the CAMP office for the scheduling of a mediation conference.

The conference takes place in the CAMP office or by telephone. Counsel must consult with the client in advance of the conference and obtain as much authority as possible to settle the case. Counsel's appearance at the conference is required, and counsel must be prepared to discuss the legal, factual, and procedural issues in depth. An attorney or client who fails to participate in the conference process in good faith may be sanctioned by the Court. LR 33.1.

During the pendency of the CAMP proceedings the parties remain obligated to meet Court deadlines, including the filing of briefs and appendices.

If the parties enter into a stipulation to withdraw the appeal without prejudice to reinstatement, the stipulation must state the terms of reinstatement, including the date by which reinstatement must occur. Dismissal under the stipulation is effective when the stipulation is "so ordered" by the Court. If the case is not reinstated by the date specified in the stipulation, the mandate in the case will issue forthwith and jurisdiction of the case will revert to the district court. LR 42.1.

Information shared during the CAMP proceeding is confidential and is not included in Court files or disclosed to the circuit judges, except to the extent disclosed by an order entered as a result of a CAMP proceeding.

At the conclusion of the CAMP proceeding, counsel for each party must complete an anonymous Post-Conference Survey and submit it to the Court's Director of Legal Affairs. The form is available on the Court's website.

THE RECORD

Within 40 days after service of the petition for review, the agency must file with the clerk the original or certified copy of the administrative record or a certified list adequately describing all documents, transcripts of testimony, exhibits, and other material constituting the record or describing those parts designated by the parties.

The parties may stipulate that no record or certified list of the documents that comprise the record will be filed. The date of the stipulation will be deemed the date the record was filed. See FRAP 17.

The agency must maintain any portion of the record not filed with the clerk and send such portions to this Court if a party or the Court requests.

The Court ordinarily does not grant a motion to extend time to file the record.

RECEIPT OF THE RECORD AND NOTIFICATION OBLIGATIONS

If the agency has not filed the transcript within 40 days of service of the petition for review upon the agency, the agency must inform the Court in writing and explain all efforts taken to file the certified record. Thereafter, the agency is required to update the Court in writing in 14-day intervals about the status of the record until it is received.

BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Within 14 days of the date the petitioner receives the certified record, the petitioner must notify the Court in writing of the date by which the petitioner's brief will be filed. Unless the case involves a voluminous transcript, the petitioner must select a filing date that is within 91 days of receipt of the certified record. Petitioner's proposed filing date will be so-ordered unless the Court determines the selected filing date is unacceptable. See LR 31.1(a)(1). In a counseled agency appeal, when the Court orders a petitioner's briefing deadline pursuant to a scheduling notification, the order will specify that the appeal is dismissed effective the due date if the brief is not filed by that date. A motion to extend the time to file the brief or to seek other relief will not toll the previously ordered filing date. See LR 27.1(f)(1); cf. RLI Insurance Co. v. JDJ Marine, Inc., 716 F.3d 41, 43-45 (2d Cir. 2013). If a case is dismissed for failure to timely file a brief, a party who moves to reinstate the appeal must file the motion within 14 days of the date of the order dismissing the appeal and must attach the party's brief as an exhibit to the motion. See LR 27.1(i).

Within 14 days of filing of petitioner's brief or the last petitioner's brief in a consolidated or multi-petitioner case, the respondent must notify the Court in writing of the date by which the respondent's brief will be filed. Unless the case involves a voluminous transcript, the respondent must select a filing date that is within 91 days of filing of the last petitioner's brief. Respondent's proposed filing date will be so ordered unless the Court determines the selected filing date is unacceptable. See LR 31.2(a)(2). When the Court orders an appellee's briefing deadline pursuant to a scheduling notification, the order will specify that the appeal will proceed to a merits panel for determination forthwith if the brief is not filed by the due date. Appellee will be required to file a motion for permission to file the brief and appear at oral argument. A motion to extend the time to file the brief or to seek other relief will not toll the previously ordered filing date. See LR 27.1(f)(1); cf. RLI Insurance Co., 716 F.3d at 43-45.

If a cross-petition has been filed, within 14 days of filing of the last cross-petitioner's brief, the petitioner-cross-respondent must notify the Court in writing of the date by which the petitioner-cross-respondent's response brief will be due. The petitioner-cross-respondent must select a filing date that is within 60 days of filing of the last cross-petitioner's brief.

Absent extraordinary circumstances, a petitioner or respondent's failure to submit a scheduling letter will result in a briefing deadline of 40 days from the date the certified record is filed. A respondent's or petitioner-cross-respondent's failure to submit a scheduling letter will result in a briefing deadline of 30 days from the date the petitioner's or cross-petitioner's brief is filed. If a reply brief is filed, it must be served and filed within 21 days after service of the last respondent's brief (or cross respondent's brief if a cross-petition has been filed) but not less than 3 days before argument unless the Court allows a later filing. See LR 31.2(a)(2).

A party's filing of a potentially dispositive motion, a motion for IFP status, or a FRAP 42 stipulation for dismissal without prejudice at any time prior to one of the briefing schedule deadlines set forth above tolls the time period for the filing of scheduling notifications and briefs until the Court decides the motion or the case is reinstated.

An extension of time to file a brief will not be granted in the absence of a most extraordinary circumstance.

FILING THE BRIEF AND APPENDIX

FORM OF BRIEF AND APPENDIX

The Brief

The brief sets forth the legal argument of the case and must comply with FRAP 28, 28.1, 29, 32, and 32.1 and LRs 25.1, 31.1, and 32.1, as each rule may be applicable.

A principal brief must not exceed 30 pages or 14,000 words. If monospaced typeface, it must not exceed 1300 lines of text. Monospaced typeface, such as "Courier," must not contain more than 10½ characters per inch. Proportionally spaced typeface such as "Times New Roman" must be 14-point or larger. Text and footnotes in a pamphlet brief must be in 12-point or larger type with 2 points or more leading between the lines: printers should be familiar with these standards.

A reply brief must not exceed 15 pages or half the type-volume (i.e., numbered words or lines) permitted in a principal brief. Headings, footnotes, and quotations count toward word and line limitations.

The filer must certify the number of words or lines in a certificate of compliance which is included in the brief.

The corporate disclosure statement; table of contents; table of citations; statement with respect to oral argument; any addendum containing statutes, rules, or regulations; and any certificates of compliance do not count toward the type-volume limitation. See FRAP 32.

A brief must be legible.

A brief in pamphlet size will be accepted in this Court and must conform to FRAP 32(a).

The petitioner's brief must also contain (see FRAP 28):

- A table of contents, with page references;
- An alphabetically arranged table of cases, statutes, and other authorities cited with references to pages in the brief;
- A statement of subject matter and appellate jurisdiction, the filing dates establishing timeliness of the appeal, and an assertion that the appeal is from a final order or judgment or that some other basis exists for appellate jurisdiction;
- A statement of the issues presented;
- A concise statement of the case that (a) includes at the beginning of the section (1) a description of the nature of the case and the relevant procedural history, (2) identification of the judge or agency official who rendered the decision being appealed, (3) the disposition below, and (4) citation to the decision or supporting opinion, if reported, see LR 28.1(b), and (b) sets out the facts relevant to the issues submitted for review, with references to the record;
- A summary of argument;
- An argument;
- A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought;
- Proof of service unless filed electronically in accordance with LR 25.1; and
- A Certificate of Compliance bound at the back of the brief when a principal brief exceeds 30 pages or a reply brief exceeds 15 pages, see FRAP 32(a)(7)(C).

The following colors for brief covers must be used:

- Petitioner - Blue
- Respondent - Red
- Reply - Gray
- Intervenor or Amicus - Green
- Supplemental - Tan

The caption on the covers of the briefs and appendices must conform to this Court's "official caption." If this Court's official caption is erroneous, counsel must alert the Court promptly in writing but in no event later than 7 days prior to the due date for the appellant's brief.

A motion for leave to file an oversized brief must, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, be made at least 14 days before the brief's due date. A motion for leave to extend the time to file a brief must be made as soon as practicable after an extraordinary circumstance arises.

The Appendix

The appendix must comply with FRAP 30 and LR 30.1. It should contain from the certified record all material cited in the briefs or required by the Court to be included. Such material includes the following:

- the relevant docket entries in the agency proceedings;
- any relevant portions of the pleadings, charge, findings, or opinion;
- the judgment, order, or decision being appealed; and
- any other parts of the record to which the parties wish to direct the particular attention of the Court.

Only those parts of the record necessary to illustrate the legal argument should be included in the appendix. The omission of part of the record from the appendix will not preclude the parties or the Court from relying on such parts since the record is available to the Court if needed. See FRAP 30(a)(1).

Only material that is part of the certified record may be included in the appendix.

SPECIAL APPENDIX

The parties must file a Special Appendix if the appendix, exclusive of the orders, opinions and judgments being appealed, exceeds 300 pages. The Special Appendix must contain (1) the orders, opinions and judgments being appealed, and (2) the text, with appropriate citation, of any significant rule of law, including any constitution provision, treaty, statute, ordinance, regulation, rule, or sentencing guideline. The Special Appendix may be an addendum at the end of a brief or a separately bound volume designated “Special Appendix.” See LR 32.1.

If an attorney’s failure to file a brief or appendix results in a default or dismissal of the appeal, this Court may discipline the attorney.

MOTIONS

All requests to the Court - for example, permission to file an oversized brief - must be made in the form of a motion that complies with FRAP 27, LR 27.1, and any other applicable rule or statute. The Court requires a motion to be accompanied by the Court’s Form T-1080 Motion Information Statement. In a case in which all parties are represented by counsel, the moving party’s motion must indicate (1) that the movant has notified opposing counsel or why the movant could not do so; (2) opposing counsel’s position on the relief requested, and (3) whether opposing counsel intends to file a response to the motion.

An affidavit or attorney’s affirmation that contains only factual information must be filed with the motion. The movant may file a memorandum of law that complies with LR 27.1(a)(3).

A moving party seeking substantive relief from a lower court opinion or agency decision must attach a copy of the opinion or decision and any written decision as a separately identified exhibit. For cases in which a party does not file documents electronically with the Court, a counseled party must file only an original of the motion. If the motion exceeds 50 pages, the movant must also submit 3 additional paper copies of the motion to the Court. Proof of service on all other parties to the action must accompany the motion papers unless the motion is filed electronically in accordance with LR 25.1.

Papers in response to a motion must be served and filed within 10 days of service in person or by email, or within 13 days of service by mail. For cases in which the Court does not require electronic filing of documents, an adverse party must file only an original of the responsive papers. If the response exceeds 50 pages, the respondent must also submit 3 additional paper copies of the response. A substantive motion requiring oral argument is usually heard on Tuesdays when the Court is in session.

Procedural motions (for example, an extension of time to file a document or permission to file an oversized brief), will not be placed on a motions calendar and need not be noticed for a particular date. Since papers usually are not filed in opposition to procedural motions, the Court does not wait for such papers to determine the motion. As a result, opposition papers should be filed promptly to ensure that the Court considers them. In some instances, the Court may request the filing of opposition papers. In that event the opposition papers should be filed in accordance with the deadline set by the Court.

Certain routine procedural motions are determined by the clerk or the clerk acting under the clerk's authority. Other procedural motions are referred to the applications judge. Upon counsel's request for reconsideration, a clerk's order may be resubmitted to a judge for determination.

Once a case is assigned a date for oral argument, all motions filed in that case, including any procedural motions, will be referred to the panel that will hear the appeal. To maintain the anonymity of the panel, a motion decided by the panel is signed by the clerk or the clerk's designee.

MOTION FOR A STAY

A petitioner seeking to stay the agency order being appealed for the pendency of the appeal must first ask the agency to stay its decision pending the appeal. The motion may be made directly in the Court of Appeals if the movant demonstrates that moving first in the agency would be impracticable or that the agency denied the motion or otherwise failed to afford the relief requested. The movant must state the reasons the agency gave for its action, if any. In addition, the motion must include the reasons for granting the relief requested, the facts upon which movant relies, affidavits supporting the facts subject to dispute, and relevant parts of the record. See FRAP 18.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Unless the Court orders otherwise, any submission to the Court must not include an individual's social security number, taxpayer identification number, or birth date; the name of an individual known to be a minor; or a financial account number except as permitted in Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2(a) and (b).

PROOF OF SERVICE

All papers filed in this Court must be served on the other parties in the case. See FRAP 25. The PDF version of a document must be e-mailed to a party represented by counsel and to a party not represented by counsel if the pro se party has chosen to submit documents in PDF.

All such papers presented for filing must include an acknowledgment of service by the person(s) served or proof of service by the person who made the service. The acknowledgment or proof must be in the form of a certified statement of the date and manner of service, the name of each person served, and the mail address, email address, or place of delivery used for service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the papers filed. An acknowledgment and proof of service form can be found on the Court's website. If, however, a party is filing a document electronically with the Court in accordance with LR 25.1, no separate proof of service is necessary. See LR 25.1(h)(2).

A pro se litigant who does not submit documents in PDF must be served with hard copies of documents by mail or in person.

FAILURE TO FILE

If a counseled or pro se petitioner fails to file a form, brief, appendix, or document, or otherwise fails to act, by the date set in FRAP, a LR, or a Court order, that party will be deemed in default. The Court will issue an order that sets a firm dismissal date to occur if the default is not cured within a specified time frame. Once the case is dismissed, the Court will view a motion to reinstate unfavorably unless the Court finds that extraordinary reasons explain the default. A party that files a motion to reinstate the appeal following dismissal for failure to file a brief on time must do so within 14 days of the date of the order dismissing the appeal. The motion to reinstate must include the party's brief as an exhibit to the motion. See LR 27.1(I).

DOCUMENTS UNDER SEAL

On rare occasions a document will be placed "under seal" so that it is not publicly available. A paper that has been sealed in the agency below will remain under seal in the Court of Appeals if received as part of the record. A document that was not sealed in the agency below will not be sealed in the Court of Appeals without a Court order. A party wishing to file a paper under seal with the Court of Appeals must make a written motion. An informal request to seal a document will not be entertained. All papers submitted to the Court pursuant to a sealing order must be submitted in a sealed envelope, marked SEALED, with a copy of the order placing the document under seal attached to the envelope. One set of the sealed papers must be filed in addition to the number of copies required by court rule - for example, six copies of briefs plus one additional copy, three copies of motion papers plus one additional copy.

A party must not file a sealed document electronically but within 7 days after filing a sealed document, the party must file a redacted version of the document electronically on the docket unless the Court orders otherwise. See LR 25.1(j)(2).

ORAL ARGUMENT

Within 14 days after the final respondent's brief is filed, each party must advise the Court whether it seeks oral argument by filing an Oral Argument Statement Form which is available on the Court's website. Failure to timely file the Oral Argument Statement Form signifies that the party does not seek oral argument. See LR 34.1.

Certain types of immigration petitions are not automatically calendared for oral argument but proceed on a separate non-argument calendar ("NAC"). Cases that are heard on the NAC include those that raise the following:

- a claim for asylum under the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA"),
- a claim for withholding of removal under the INA, or
- a claim for withholding of deferral of removal under the Convention Against Torture, or a denial of a motion to reopen or reconsider a prior decision that raised one of the claims above.

On occasion the Court may decide to take a case on submission, without oral argument. When the Court so decides, the clerk will notify the parties. See FRAP 34(a)(2), LR 34.1.

When an appeal is set for argument, the Court will notify counsel 2 to 4 weeks prior to the argument date. Occasionally the notification time may be shorter especially if the appeal has been expedited on motion of the parties. Once a case has been assigned a date for oral argument, an adjournment is rarely granted.

An appeal is heard by a three-judge panel of the Court. The names of the judges are made public at noon on Thursday of the week before the panel sits. From the third week in August through June, the Court generally sits every weekday but not on a holiday or during the last week of December. In July and the first two weeks of August, the Court holds oral argument as needed.

Currently the Court hears argument in Courtroom 1703 of the Thurgood Marshall U.S. Courthouse at 40 Centre Street, New York City. Occasionally the Court will hear argument at another location within the Circuit. Oral argument usually starts at 10:00 a.m. and continues until completion. During certain weeks the Court has double panels with the second panel hearing argument simultaneously in Courtroom 1505 of the Thurgood Marshall U.S. Courthouse. Notice of changes in the date, time, or location of a Court session is posted on the website.

The Court sets the amount of argument time for each case that will be heard. Arguments are generally limited to 10 minutes or less per side. Additional time may be granted in complex or multi-party cases. An audio recording of oral argument is available on the Court's website.

PETITION FOR REHEARING OR MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

When the Court issues (1) an opinion pursuant to which a final judgment is entered or (2) a summary order and judgment disposing of the appeal, a party may wish to apply for a rehearing. There are two kinds of rehearing. A petition for a panel rehearing requests that the panel of judges that originally heard the case reconsider its decision. A petition for a rehearing en banc requests that all the active judges on the Court rehear the case. A petition for panel rehearing and/or rehearing en banc must be filed within 14 days after the decision determining the case is filed. FRAP 35(c), 40(a)(1); LRs 35.1, 40.1. If a party is simultaneously filing a petition for rehearing and a petition for rehearing en banc, both requests must be made in a single document. When a petition for rehearing exceeds 50 pages, including the copy of the opinion or summary order to which the petition relates, the party filing the petition must submit 3 paper copies to the Court. If the petition for rehearing includes a petition for rehearing en banc, the party filing the petition must submit 15 paper copies to the Court. Submission of the paper copies is in addition to any applicable electronic filing requirements.

In some cases, the Court may dispose of an appeal by a final three-judge order for which a FRAP 36 judgment is not entered. In these instances, an adversely affected party may file a motion for panel reconsideration and a motion for reconsideration en banc. See LR 40.2. The motion must comply with the requirements for filing a petition for rehearing or rehearing en banc under FRAP 35, FRAP 40, and LRs 35.1 and 40.1. See id.

If the Court substantively amends a decision, the time for filing a petition or motion begins to run from the date the amended decision is entered. This recalculation of the time does not apply if the Court issues a decision making a non-substantive change (e.g., correcting a typographical error). Each petition or motion must include a copy of the opinion or summary order to which the petition or motion relates.

The timely filing of a petition for rehearing or a motion for panel reconsideration will stay the issuance of the mandate until disposition of the petition or motion unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If the petition or motion is denied, the mandate issues 7 days after the entry of the order denying the petition or motion unless the time is shortened or extended by order.

COSTS

The prevailing party on appeal may assess costs incurred during the appeal against the losing party. If the Court affirms and reverses in part, modifies or vacates a judgment, costs are assessed only as the Court may order. If the United States is a party, costs will be assessed only if authorized by law. See FRAP 39; LR 39.1.

Costs may be assessed for no more than the actual number of paper copies of the briefs and appendices filed with the Court under LRs 30.1 and 31.1. Costs may also be assessed for serving a party under LR 25.1(h)(4) if the party seeking costs attaches proof that the paper copy was served. See LR 39.1(a).

Costs are taxed at the following rates, or the actual cost, whichever is less, for reproduction of briefs and appendices:

- Reproduction per page: $0.20
- Covers: $125.00
- Binding per copy: $5.00

No other costs for briefs and appendices (e.g., costs for electronic filing, serving parties, electronic file production and review, paralegal time, preparation of tables and footnotes) are permitted.

The Bill of Costs, verified, must be filed within 14 days after the entry of judgment. An original plus one copy must be filed with the Court. The bill also must be served on all parties.

Identify the number of copies that comprise the printer's unit. Include the printer's bills, which must state the minimum charge per printer's unit for a page, a cover, foot lines by the line, and an index and table of cases by the page. Indicate only the number of necessary copies. State actual costs at rates not higher than those generally charged for printing services in New York, NY; excessive charges are subject to reduction.

The Bill of Costs form is available on the Court's website.

ISSUANCE OF MANDATE

The issuance of the mandate terminates the Court of Appeals' jurisdiction over a case and transfers jurisdiction back to the district court or agency. The mandate is a copy of the order or judgment that terminates the case with the word "Mandate" inscribed. There is no separate document. If no petition for rehearing is filed, the mandate will issue 21 days after the entry of the judgment except for cases in which the United States is a party. In that event the mandate will issue 52 days after the entry of the judgment. The mandate issues 7 days after entry of an order denying a timely petition for rehearing or sooner if so, ordered by the Court. FRAP 41.

An appeal that is terminated upon the disposition of a motion ordinarily is mandated forthwith.

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

A party seeking United States Supreme Court review of a Court of Appeals judgment or order must file a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari with the Supreme Court within 90 days from the date of the entry of judgment or denial of the petition for rehearing. The party may move to stay the mandate, pending application to the Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari. FRAP 41(d)(2).
